

cinema for the unemployed

HOLLYWOOD DISASTER MOVIES 1970 - 1997

A 9am-5pm work week of free public screenings: The Towering Inferno; Earthquake; Avalanche; Hurricane; The Poseidon Adventure; Airport '70; Airport '79; The Concorde; Twister; Daylight; Independence Day; Volcano; Meteor; When Time Ran Out. Monday-Friday, May 25-29, 1998 at Tivoli Amfi, Storgaten, Moss, Norway. cinema for the unemployed – HOLLYWOOD DISASTER MOVIES 1970-1997 is a satellite to the exhibition PAKKHUS, produced for the nordic art festival MOMENTUM. It is made possible by the generous assistance of the local unemployment office in Moss and courtesy of United International Pictures, Hollywood Classics, Ltd. and Twentieth Century Fox, London.

Project conceived and produced by Aleksandra Mir Program Advisor: Onome Ekeh Design: Valerie Wagner Curators: Daniel Birnbaum, Atle Gerhardsen, Lars Bang Larsen

